

Drummond Historical Society Meeting
Minutes Wednesday, January 19, 2011

Next Meeting February 16, 2011 – Public Invited – Library Meeting Room

Attendees: Les Watters, Karen Watters, Ruth Ann Unseth, Rodger Larsen, Patsy Larsen, Mark Jansen

Minutes from November 17, 2010 posted on Drummond website. Motion to approve minutes with by Les and second by Rodger. Passed.

Treasure's Report – Motion to approve by Patsy and second by Rodger. Passed.

Correspondence – Karen had miscellaneous information. Some to file for information only.

Old Business

There was not a monthly meeting in December.

New Shelving unit complete – Thank you Rodger & Les. And a thank you to Karen and Les for organizing all items in the workroom into boxes with labels.

Mark Jansen received photos and deed of gift (Dec. 22).

New Business

Les gave an update on Office Max MN credit card with tax information for museum.

Karen suggested possible listing of all publications/CDs/maps, etc. in museum workroom so public is aware of what is available to be checked out from museum. Patsy said we had discussed in the past and decided we could not afford to let our items leave the building as so many cannot be replaced. Karen agreed and closed the discussion.

Karen and Les described “Amy Dewey Doll” that Les’ sister, Kay Watters, has mentioned that she would like to donate to the Drummond Museum. If she does donate the doll, Karen would like to display it along with the lamp from Jack & Irene Jones, in the pedestal in the bay window area. (Post meeting note – now on display)

BCHS Report – Sherrie Peterson said Madeline Island will now be advertised as “The Coolest Little Town”. Karen Robe ken mentioned a “media tour” happening in NW WI this spring. Check it out on www.cable4fun.com. Patsy and Ruth Ann will attend the March 7 BCBS meeting on the 2nd floor of the court house and pick up Bill Meyer by the Delta Diner as Karen will be under doctor’s care for her foot operation. Get well quickly, Karen. Golf will be upon you guys soon. BAHA in Barnes Feb. 5th.

Patsy moved to adjourn and Les seconded. All approved.
